On the morning of February 20, 1895, I was sick with rhumatism, and lay in bed until May 21, when I got a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The first appileation of it relieved me almost en tirely from the pain and the second afforded complete relief. In a short time I was able to be up and about again.— Express Limited, Mondays I was able to be up and about and Fridays A. T. Moreaux, Luzerne, Minn. Sold by
